Meteorological Situation

High pressure centering north of Scotland is expected to maintain calm and clear conditions. The High will expand over Europe, yet maintains a ridge over Scotland, hence calm conditions will persist into the weekend. Towards next midweek, approaching areas of low pressure from the North Atlantic (one from the SW, another from the NW) are forecast to bring windier and rainier conditions. Local conditions next 72 hrs: Wind: ESE-ly, light or moderate. Sea temperature: 11-12C.
